This is to certify that Naresh Bhownik son of late Adhar Chandra Bhownik of Silchar, Cachar, Assam was known to me since long.

He joined the freedom movement of the country and was arrested during the 'Quit India' movement. He was kept in the Dum Dum Central Jail in 1942-43.

He died of Cancer in the year 1967. His wife Sja Dipali Bhownik is now in extreme distress. As the wife of a deceased political sufferer, she is entitled to get the post mortem benefit of political pension. Her application for the same deserves careful consideration and sympathetic consideration. Chitta Basu

Dear Sir,

I received a letter from Smt. Deepali Rani Bhowmick, W/o Late Narosh Ch. Bhowmick of Ratha Madhava Park Road, Silchar, Assam, stating that she applied for grant of freedom fighters pension on 13-5-1972. She was advised to produce the necessary certificates. It is learnt that she produced certificate from S/Shri Dwijendra Lal Sen Gupta, Samar Guha, Mahitosh Purkyasth and Nural Huda, all ex-M.Ps, on the 22-5-1975. She further stated that she has lost all the copies. She could give the reference number of the case, which is 13/1053/72-FF IX dated 22.2.74.

I personally knew her husband, late N.C. Bhowmick who was a freedom fighter. Smt. Bhowmick is in distress. I would, therefore, request you to kindly look into the case and take appropriate action. An early reply will be highly appreciated.

Yours faithfully,
