Respected Nalini Da,

As you know, Smt. Depali Rani Bhowmick, wife of late Naresh Chandra Bhowmick, applied for Freedom Fighters' Pension, some time ago. The matter did not move till I intervened. The position taken by the Govt. of India in this regard is explained in the enclosed copy of letter received by me from Shri Zail Singh, Home Minister. It is clear that she may get pension, if Govt. of West Bengal recommends her case. Naresh Chandra Bhowmick was one of our best colleagues and we all owe debt to his widow. Kindly move this matter in the Advisory Committee and clear the case as soon as possible, so that Smt. Depali Rani Bhowmick can get some relief in her days of distress. Kindly treat this as urgent.

Yours sincerely,

Chitta Basu

HOME MINISTER
INDIA

New Delhi

Dated May 19, 1981.

Dear Shri Basu,

Please refer to your letter dated the 10th March, 1981 regarding grant of freedom fighters pension to Smt. Depali Rani Bhowmick widow of Shri Naresh Chandra Bhowmick of Cachar District, Assam, under Swantantrata Sainik Samman Pension Scheme 1972.

2. I have seen her case and find that in 1942, her husband had undergone imprisonment in Dum Dum jail. No official records have been produced supporting the claim of imprisonment. We have requested the State Government of West Bengal for confirmation of this aspect. Necessary action will be taken on receipt of a report from them.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
